

DoD Submission Form – How to use

1. Prepare the documents on display in PDF file format, and limit the file size to 10MB each. If the documents are available only in hardcopy, then scanning and conversion to PDF format will be required. Before you do image scanning, it is highly recommended that you set the output type to “black and white” and resolution within “200 dpi”.
2. For a document that consists of a large number of pages, it is advised that the same document should be split into several files, so that each PDF file should not be more than 10MB in size.
3. For a document that is available both in the Chinese and English versions, they should be treated as two separate documents. The document title should have indication of the language, e.g. Files named “(002) AR2004 (Eng).pdf” and “(003) AR2004 (Chi).pdf” may be used to refer to documents titled “(002) Annual Report 2004 (English)” and “(003) Annual Report 2004 (Chinese)” respectively.
4. Rename the files, or name the file during preparation so that the file names of all split documents should bear the same prefix (the first 6 characters of the file name). As the documents will be listed on the web in the order of their file names, numbering might be used to override such default sequences. If there are more than 10, 100, 1000, etc documents, padding should be used so that leading zeros will help document sorting, e.g. “(001)” should be used instead of “(01)” as the prefix if there are more than a hundred documents.
5. After you have completed the above renaming process and arranged the files by name, you should have prepared the PDF files with numbered file names placed in a single folder that are ordered in the same way you would expect on the web like this:

6. Open the DoD Submission Form with Microsoft Excel. Choose [Enable Macros] if an alert dialog box is popped up, and follow the instructions in the dialog box if necessary.

7. Select the "Example Only" worksheet. Study the sample form and be prepared to fill in the actual input form.
8. Select the "Input Form" worksheet and fill in all appropriate data as illustrated in the sample form.
9. "Stock Code" field must be in 5 digits, or leading zeros will be added automatically.
10. "Document Date" field must be in "dd/mm/yyyy" form, e.g. 06/01/2006, otherwise, the system will try to change your input into this format or the field must be inputted again.
11. If all the basic information is filled out, the next step is to load the PDF files (prepared in steps 3 and 4 above) into the form.
12. Click the [Extract] button, locate the folder (e.g. c:\temp\dod) where the PDF files are placed using the "Browse for Folder" dialog box like this:

13. Then the List of Documents on Display will be automatically filled out and sorted according to the numbering of the file names like this:

List of Documents on Display
Document Description	Partition	File Name	File Size
English	Chinese	File must be in Portable Document Format (PDF)	<= 10 MB
(001) Articles of Association - 001	1	(001) Articles of Association - 001.pdf	0.16 MB
	2	(001) Articles of Association - 002.pdf	0.16 MB
(002) AR2004 (Eng) - 001	1	(002) AR2004 (Eng) - 001.pdf	0.07 MB
	2	(002) AR2004 (Eng) - 002.pdf	0.11 MB
	3	(002) AR2004 (Eng) - 003.pdf	0.10 MB
(003) AR2004 (Chi) - 001	1	(003) AR2004 (Chi) - 001.pdf	0.11 MB
	2	(003) AR2004 (Chi) - 002.pdf	0.11 MB
	3	(003) AR2004 (Chi) - 003.pdf	0.13 MB

End of File

14. If there are files larger than 10MB, each of them should be split into several smaller files in the same folder. After doing this, repeat from step 11 above.

Partition	File Name	File Size
File must be in Portable Document Format (PDF)		<= 10 MB
All	{001} Articles of Association.pdf	12.00 MB
1	{002} AR2004 (Eng) - 001.pdf	0.07 MB
2	{002} AR2004 (Eng) - 002.pdf	0.11 MB

Partition	File Name	File Size
File must be in Portable Document Format (PDF)		<= 10 MB
1	{001} Articles of Association - 001.pdf	6.00 MB
2	{001} Articles of Association - 002.pdf	6.00 MB
1	{002} AR2004 (Eng) - 001.pdf	0.07 MB
2	{002} AR2004 (Eng) - 002.pdf	0.11 MB

15. If all the files are now within the 10MB file size limit and the order that they are placed on the list is just the same way you want them displayed on the web, you may then fill out the English and Chinese descriptions for each document.

To facilitate filling out the document description, the “English Description” field is defaulted with the file name, and you can modify it to give a better meaning. For documents with several partitions, only their first row’s descriptions need to be filled out.

15. Print out the form and signed on the section “Authorized Signature of the provider of the DoD”.

Authorised Signature of the provider of the DoD Note: This should be signed by the provider of the DoD or the financial or legal adviser of the issuer of the documents. The signer also confirms this printed form is generated from the soft copy being submitted.
- Name	Mr. Chan Siu Man
- Position	Vice President

16. Burn all the PDF files listed in the form (files located in the folder previously selected for loading the PDF files) together with the completed DoD submission form using Recordable CD or DVD.
17. Make sure that the names of all files contained in the CDs are exactly the same as those extracted into the DoD Form. If filename truncation is detected, you may need to repeat from step 12 (Extract files) or step 16 (Burn CD/DVD) again.
18. Submit the CD or DVD to SFC, covered by the duly signed DoD Submission Form hardcopy.

Advanced Options

19. If you wish to replace just one particular document (with or without partitions) instead of re-doing the whole extraction as mentioned in step 11 above, position your cursor on that document description, right-click once, then select “Re-extract files for this DoD document” and follow the instructions to proceed.
20. If you wish to submit documents in separate batches (e.g. 25 documents on Day 1, and 5 documents on Day 2), then your Day 1 submission should contain 25 documents plus an “incomplete” DoD Form showing only these 25 documents.
On Day 2, when the remaining 5 documents are ready, you should add them to the local hard-drive folder mentioned in step 5 above and follow step 12 to re-extract all 30 documents into the final DoD Form. Assuming no changes to any of the previous 25 documents, your Day 2 submission should contain just the remaining 5 documents plus the “complete” DoD Form showing all 30 documents.
